

I have a dream...

I have a dream that there could be world peace. It might be a lot to ask but we could accomplish it together. Since the dawn of time we have not even had peace. Not even for a single second! World peace is possible.

People were and are dying for no reason. They are risking their lives for us. The youngest boy in a war was 12 years old! Do you think that's acceptable? Massive amounts of innocent people are getting killed just because of a dumb war. 97 million people got slaughtered in world war 1 & world war 2! Do you believe that? That is pointless violence & terrible. Don't you want to live in a war free world.

We need peace

Every breath you take somebody dies. Lets change that.

I imagine yourself right now in Afghanistan with tears running down your cheeks. You just heard the news while you were at school - your house got bombed. All of your possessions gone in just in a blink of an eye. Your parents got murdered by the soldiers in some fighter jets. The soldiers must feel devastated that they killed those people. It wasnt there fault, dont blame them. It was the Presidents, King & Queens fault. Are you really going to stand here and do nothing?! World peace is possible. Nothing is possible. The word itself says possible. The people that think war is ok - You should feel ashamed of yourselfs right now

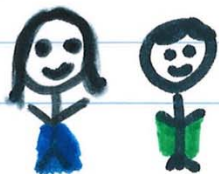

PEACE!!!

Please support me with this; I might be little but I am not un-important.

I know a man that used to be in the war. I try to ask him what happend. But he can not even say a single word without crying! Do you want our next generation to deal with this!?! Having men & women scared for life? Doing nothing doesn't help. But doing something does help! Don't you think?

I have a dream today.
