

'Remember, remember the fifth of November, Gunpowder, treason and plot...'

Provo Primary Families are invited to a

Bonfire Night

On 5th November every year, effigies of Guy Fawkes are burned on bonfires across England in recognition of his part in the failed 'Gunpowder Plot' of 1605. Here in the Turks and Caicos, Clive Whent at Bay Bistro helps us to join in with this tradition, inviting Provo Primary families to an annual Guy Fawkes Bonfire Night Party.

On the 5th November
@ Bay Bistro
5:30-7:30 PM

The bonfire will be lit at 6:30pm

BBQ burgers, hot dogs, sausages
on a stick and drinks on sale

Please note that all children need to be accompanied by an adult who will be responsible for their supervision and safety throughout the evening.
