

The Holocaust

We played, we laughed

We were loved.

We were ripped from the arms of our parents and thrown into the fire.

We had a future. We were going to be doctors, lawyers, teachers.

We had dreams, then we had no hope.

We were taken away in the dead of night,

No air to breathe, smothering, crying, starving, dying.

Separated from this world to be no more.

This atrocity to mankind can not happen again.

Remember us, for we were the children whose dreams and lives were stolen away...
